INTERNATIONAL ATTENDANCE

The Association for Ocular Pharmacology and Therapeutics (AOPT) Biennial Scientific Meeting is an international conference dedicated to the discussion of exciting new discoveries related to the treatment of ocular diseases. Meeting participants represent more than 20 countries. They are clinicians and eye care professionals, academics, industry scientists, and entrepreneurs. In 2021, the AOPT 15th Biennial Meeting is expected to reach viewers in North America, South America, Europe, and Asia -- by virtual meeting platform and archived rebroadcasts.

VIRTUAL CONFERENCE: UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

Since 1993, AOPT has hosted Biennial Scientific Meetings. AOPT promotes this special event to its members and other interested parties through various media on a daily basis. Given travel and meeting size restrictions during the COVID-19 pandemic, the AOPT 2021 online meeting format will allow sponsors and supporters a unique opportunity to continue existing relationships and develop new ones. When travel restrictions are lifted, you will have an expanded network for outreach activities. If ocular pharmacology and treatments are important to your business, brand, or organization, the AOPT 15th Biennial Scientific Meeting, March 4-7, 2021 is the venue to meet professionals from all around the world.
